JOHN S. HAMER, P. M.
SUMMERS HARDY, Deputy.

The mother of ex-Attorney General A. H. Garland has died.

PLENTY of money is offered to be put up that McKinley will be next president of the United States.

SOME fool editors up east have started a wild talk of impeaching President Cleveland over the Hawaii matter. It is absurd.

A SMALL small-pox scare in small localities is making a small scare among a small number of editors up east and the reports are found sprinkled in small quantities among the small associated press dispatches.

PRAIRIE fires got started north of Allen Bayou, I. T., last Friday and swept over thousands of acres of prairie lands. Dwellings and a considerable amount of hay were consumed in the blaze; a large number of farmers turned out to fight the flames.

MANY men are slow in matters of public interest because in a great many instances the ends to be attained are doubtful of accomplishment. When we say that the citizens of Ardmore can make this place a city of twelve or fifteen thousand souls within the next seven or eight years the facts are such that warrant the assertion and leaves no room for conjecture.

A TOWN possessing unlimited natural advantages is to be congratulated for nature's kindness. A town possessing any and all kinds of nature's endowments is no better off than the one not half so fortunate when the latter has for its citizens men of push and energy while the former's inhabitants are inactive and slow to move. This is no idle delusion and should be given earnest thought.

Mr. Harshaw keeps the finest and best oysters of any place in the city. His tables are supplied with the best the markets afford. He keeps a first-class line of cigars. His department is good. His patrons are treated right. He wants the city patronage and believes that he merits and deserves his share of it. He also runs a first class lunch counter in connection with his restaurant. He keeps careful and well selected fruits, canned goods, bananas, etc. He makes a specialty of fresh fish and oysters. His charges are reasonable.

J. B. Ingrams at the corner of Main and Caddo streets is the place to go for lunch, fish, oysters and territorial drinks. Meals served hot at all hours of the day and at reasonable prices. Give him a call.

THE South may be on the threshold of another "boom," but it should be an honest boom. If there was ever a time when truthfulness in describing the advantages of a village or city should be followed it is now. And why not tell the truth? There are enough facts regarding the climate, the resources, the cheapness of labor, the transportation facilities, the character of the people and the soundness of Southern financial institutions around Ardmore to induce an investment of capital.

THE CITY.

J. N. Worthy will sell you Irish potatoes at $1.10 per bushel.

Mrs. J. L. Galt is now considered out of danger, much to the delight of her many friends.

Teas, coffees and imported goods a specialty at the McCoy brick, where J. N. Worthy now holds forth.

Sidewalks are in wretched condition. Better repair them before the days of snow and sleet are upon us.

ONE-QUARTER OFF on clothing at the Big Iron Store.

Rev. A. S. Cook of Leon is in the city.

For fruits, oranges and nuts of all kinds, call on J. N. Worthy at his new stand.

Quite a cool wave sprung up this morning and red hot stoves and overcoats were in demand.

You can buy cabbage at 2 1-2 cents per pound at J. N. Worthy's.

Wanted—a good Cook for small family; apply at this office. 1wk.

See those fine M. D. Wells shoes at the Racket Store, selling at cost, 1wk.

20 pounds of Y. C. Sugar for $1.00 at J. N. Worthy's.

Wanted—Board and room with private family by man and wife with one child. Must be close to Main street and room must be nice; address "Alphabet," care Ardmoreite.

Harshaw sets the best table for the least money of any man in town.

DRESS GOODS reduced 25 per cent at the Big Iron Store.

The Racket Store is the cheapest cash house in the Territory, and don't you forget it. 1wk.

C. B. Ladd's new cook has returned and the rush to the Central hotel is something wonderful to behold. 2t.

For fine hosiery of every kind, go to the Racket Store. 1wk.

ALL boys' youth's and men's suits and overcoats reduced 25 per cent at the Big Iron Store.

Murdock & Heck's Old Dominion roasted coffee, three pounds for $1.00 at J. N. Worthy's. Give it a trial.

One of the most popular eating houses in the city is that of Mr. Harshaw. When you eat there once you will go again. See this popular young man's "ad" elsewhere. 1t.

If you want good jewelry or silverware, go to T. H. Parker. He has a large and well selected stock, and his prices are low. Every article you buy from him is guaranteed to be as represented. As many as three letters will be cut free of charge on every piece of jewelry or silverware bought of him.

FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE POOR
A free dispensary will be given at the office of Dr. S. S. Carr to the poor of Ardmore, who may need and not be able to pay for advice and prescriptions on Mondays and Thursdays of each week from 9 to 11 a. m.
Examinations and prescriptions free to the destitute. 1t.

WANTED.
Some apprentice girls by Mrs. Mosher the dress maker on Court Street opposite the court house. 1t.

FOR SALE.
A good dwelling and business house situated at Lone Grove, ten miles west of Ardmore, which I will sell cheap for cash or trade for stock. Apply to J. R. Young, Lone Grove. 1wk.

J. N. Worthy carries a full and complete line of fancy and staple groceries which he sells at the lowest possible cash prices.

Arbuckle's coffee 25 cents per pound packages at J. N. Worthy's, in the McCoy building.

Advertise in the Ardmoreite.

THE New York Sun started a story that Miss Helen Gould was about to marry a man named Woodruff. George Gould in a letter to the Associated Press denies this emphatically and says his sister is engaged to no one. When Miss Helen marries she will probably purchase a count, duke or some other poverty stricken foreign dude with a title, as this is the fashion of rich young American women.

A NEGRO at Carlisle, Ill., catches a young lady 18 years old, while picking berries in the woods near her home, strips her of all her clothing and tears them into shreds and rapes her repeatedly. He is given 20 years in the penitentiary, and the press of Illinois actually goes so far as to say it was a just sentence. It is needless for the ARDMOREITE to say what would have become of that negro had this occurred in the west or south.

Major Doak went up the road today.

Chase & Sanborns Java and Mocha coffee in 2 pound tins, ninety cents, J. N. Worthy's.

John Birge, the cotton buyer, went to Davis today to bid on a list of cotton.

Murdock & Heck's roasted coffee, pound packages, 37 1-2 cents. Some thing entirely new at J. N. Worthy's.

Rev. T. J. Turner passed through the city enroute home at Davis from Lebanon.

Here is a bargain, 17 pounds of granulated sugar for $1.00, call on J. N. Worthy.

An extra train of eight coaches passed through this morning for Purcell for the accommodation of the excursion to the Fort tomorrow.

Best fancy Louisiana ribbon cane molasses for 60 cents per gallon, by trading with J. N. Worthy.

The reporter had the pleasure of meeting J. E. Robbins, of Eldorado, Kan. He is in the city, the guest of Mr. Vandenburg the lumber man.

Sixteen pounds of new pearl head rice for $1.00 at J. N. Worthy's, the grocer. 1t.

The excursion to Fort Worth tomorrow will be taken advantage of by many of our citizens to visit the Panther city.

The Racket Store sells ladies' fine shoes for $3.50 that others charge $5 for. 1wk.

ONE-QUARTER OFF on clocks at the Big Iron Store.

FOR RENT.

A dwelling on Church street. Apply to R. A. Cromer, at W. F. Whittington's store. 1wk.

We call the special attention of the public to our office. We are prepared to do job work at as low figures, and as nicely as any office in town.

Frank Mullens, brother of the popular cotton buyer of our city, is in the city. Frank is recently from Washington, where he has a position in the government printing office.

Mr. Geo. A. Kidd, with W. F. Whittington, has been on the pony list for several days, but we are glad to state he is almost himself again.

GENTS.

If you wish your clothing made in style, go see J. Stolla, the new tailor over J. F. Robinson's store. nov 22-1m

Mrs. Judge Green and daughter, Miss Stella, sister and niece of the late Mrs. Whittington, came up from Gainesville today in obedience to summons announcing the death of that most excellent lady. Other friends of the family are expected tonight.

Special Excursion to Fort Worth.

On Wednesday, Nov. 22nd, the G. C. & F. S. Ry. will give a special excursion train from all points in the Indian Ter. to Ft. Worth and return, at the exceedingly low rate of one dollar for the round trip. Special train leaves Ardmore for Ft. Worth at 6:25 a. m. arriving at Ft. Worth 10:45 a. m. Special train leaves Ft. Worth at 9:15 Wednesday p. m. arriving at Ardmore at 1:45 a. m.

Tickets good only for special train both going and coming, and will not be honored on regular trains—Remember but one dollar to Ft. Worth and return. I. R. Mason, Agent.

J. Stolla, the gentlemanly tailor at Robinson's store, is the man to consult when you wish anything of a first class tailoring kind. He does first class work only. He keeps first class goods only. His prices are reasonable. He is master of his trade. It pays to get the best and to have the best work done.

$20 REWARD.

The above reward will be paid for the return to this office of a knit purse, containing $110, five $20 gold pieces and a $10 gold piece, lost this morning, either at Musgrave's boarding house or at the Texas Wagon Yard.

Constable A. M. Burch yesterday resigned his position, stating as his reason that the fees as regulated by a committee appointed by Judge Stuart for that purpose left the office without sufficient emoluments to pay expenses. His successor has not been appointed.

The magnificent audience that witnessed the play last night would have graced the opera house of any city. "Indeed," a stranger was heard to remark after the play was over, "Ardmore has surprised me in the matter of refinement and elegance. And these people need a municipality." It would only be within the eternal fitness of things, brother.

This paper's circulation throughout the city is fast becoming universal. It is read and sought after. Why shouldn't it be? Only daily paper in Ardmore, and if there is anything of importance happening, the details can always be found in the Daily Ardmoreite. People will read the home daily.

The Ardmoreite will soon take on great improvement, as negotiations are now pending for new presses and general material. Advertisers, which every new enterprise must necessarily encounter, have no horrors for us. We mean business, so hindering obstacles might as well get off the track now and stay off.

There will be a novel and amusing entertainment given at the residence of Mrs. Kearney called a "bean bag party" next Friday night. Fifteen cents admission for adults and 10 cents for children will be charged, the proceeds to go to the Methodist church. Refreshments will be served and prizes awarded to the various competitors.

The Ardmore maid loved tenderly, He loved her not a bit, Yet fate decreed that on this night They side by side should sit.

"Say something sweet, dear," said The maid;

And through her colored glasses She eyed him fondly as he breathed The single word—"Molasses!"

"I was surprised," said J. Harvey Cook, the talented actor, to the Ardmoreite reporter yesterday, "to find in Ardmore such a thrifty and thriving town. 'Why, it's the best town of its size I have ever visited anywhere. Your bright daily paper is a most valuable acquisition to the town, and the next time I visit your city I will find you publishing one of the most prosperous dailies in the southwest. You have the location and an appreciative people.'"

BUTLER-GLENN.

Mr. Will G. Butler and Miss Allie Viola Glenn, all of this city, were married at the residence of the bride's mother, on Court street, at 8:30 o'clock last evening, Rev. Stubblefield of the Baptist church officiating.

Mr. Butler is an exemplary young man who has been well and favorably known in the Ardmore journalistic field for the last two or three years. His bride is a most estimable young lady, who possesses those traits of character which have surrounded her with many warm friends who joins the Ardmoreite in extending congratulations and sincere wishes for a prosperous and happy future.

Mr. Butler and bride left this morning for Purcell, their future home, where he takes an interest in the Purcell Topic, one of the best weekly publications in the Territory. Success to you, Will.

Prepare your "ads." for the approaching holidays.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

The opera house was again crowded last night to witness Jennie Holman's "Daughter of the Regiment." While the play possesses some little merit, still it seems to go with a drag and lacks that life and activity which carries with it commendation and hearty recognition by the audience. In the first place, the stage is too small for proper arrangements, and of course the performers were bound to be handicapped to a considerable extent. The vast audience, however, seemed to appreciate the efforts of the company, and in that part where Josephine is rehearsing for and being introduced to his royal nibs, the Duke, the ridiculous climaxes were indeed humorous. The play was not received in anything like the one of Monday night.

"The Buckeye" will be given tonight. This play is Lizzie Evan's great humorous production, and those who want to enjoy a hearty laugh had better attend.

Miss Jennie Holman and Mr. Cook are too talented stars and their support is good—exceptionally good—and the play to-night will afford each member of the company full sway in which to do themselves credit.

DEATH OF MRS. WHITTINGTON.

Died, last night at 8 o'clock at the family residence of pneumonia fever, Mrs. Sarah Agnes Whittington, wife of Capt. W. F. Whittington, aged 40 years and 9 days.

Gone from husband, gone from children, gone from friends, gone from earth to heaven. This is a fitting farewell parting to the deceased whose loss is deeply mourned in Ardmore today. This most estimable lady was the embodiment of all the virtues which constitute the christian wife, mother and useful member of society. She was a devout member of the M. E. church south, and was an ardent worker in her Master's cause. She was also a member of the American Legion of Honor.

The husband bereft of his helpmeet, the five little children, the youngest two months old, made motherless are sad realities, the results of which brings forth the unanswerable question, why is it she was taken from them when her presence in life with them was such a blessing? To the heart broken husband, the children, the pride of the doting mother, and to the host of others who are bereft the deepest sympathy of the Ardmoreite is extended in this dark hour of affliction. She is gone but not forever, for her ministering spirit is with its God and will look down from its eternal realms of happiness to guide aright the steps of those from whose presence she is so cruelly taken.

The funeral services will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. B. Smith, assisted by Rev. Taylor, at the M. E. church, which the friends of the family are requested to attend and pay their last tribute of love and respect.

Great piles of dry goods and notions are arriving daily from bankrupt stocks in New York and Chicago at the Racket Store and are being rushed out at an equally rapid rate. Cheap for cash.

A. J. Pressly, of Cass county Ga., was in the city yesterday. He enjoys the distinction of being the tallest man ever in Ardmore, being seven feet in height.

Rev. Shawhan, pastor of the Presbyterian church, left yesterday for Mississippi, where he will be married next Sunday. He and his bride will return here, their future home, next week. Congratulations are extended in advance.
